We Ought to Go

Chuck Armitage to Write 'Swaha' History

Louis Graves reports in his Nashville News that SWAHA, the name chosen for the playground organization to be built around Murfreesboro's new lake at Narrows Dam, was dreamed up by our Chuck Armitage, manager of Hope Chamber of Commerce.

The initials stand for: Southwest Arkansas Hospitality association.

But it seems we've got more to stand for than just some initials. Mr. Graves continues as follows:

"SWAHA is the official name for the group that will develop and publicize the recreational future at Narrows. . . . Although it suggests Indian derivation, it bears absolutely no relation to the Ojibwa tribe that once roamed the hills. However, Chuck Armitage of Hope who produced the name says, if necessary, he will write a history on the Swaha tribe so the whole world will know of the legendary charms of Southwest Arkansas, particularly Pike and Howard counties."

But I've been talking to Chuck, too, about Swaha — and at last reports he was no nearer to getting that Indian history written than he was last Thursday when Graves and he attended the organization meeting in Murfreesboro.

I think Chuck ought to get organized.

The first thing about organizing a history is to establish a couple of facts. Even one fact will do — as, for instance, there must have been an Indian tribe named Swaha once upon a time because they left a burial ground for us to see. Where was that burial ground? Well, I, pardner, you see, that there burial ground just happened to be where the Narrows lake now is. We used to see it all the time . . . only last year, for instance — but then the waters came and covered it up.

Oh, Chuck. One fact, and we've got our history started — you can take it from here.

Congress Asked for More Funds for Warplanes

By RUTH COWAN

Washington, April 4 —(AP)—The chairman of the house armed services committee called on congress today to vote $553,289,211 for more warplanes to help meet the threat of an "atomic blitz."

Protesting that the administration's $13,911,127,000 military program "will wither American air power on the vine," Rep. Vinson (D-Ga.) urged instead that air strength be boosted promptly.

Vinson said in a speech prepared for house delivery that the President's budget for the fiscal year beginning in July does not assure adequate defense at a time when "the atomic blitz of tomorrow is a real, a genuine possibility."

He said: "It is universally known today that Russia is building the largest air force in the world. What are they building it for? They are building it for use whenever their carefully-limed Pearl Harbor day comes around."

Previously Vinson has said he expects to sponsor several amendments to the bill authorizing military spending for the year beginning next July 1. In his speech, however, he brought up only the proposal for increasing air power.

The pending budget allots $1,300,000,000 for air force procurement and $650,000,000 for new planes for the navy and marines.

Vinson would give the air force an additional $20,000,000 or a total of $1,550,000,000 for new planes, and the navy an increase of $383,289,211 or $1,33,289,211 for the same purpose.

These increases, Vinson said, are needed to maintain an up-to-date 48-group air force and a modern naval air arm.

A house military appropriations subcommittee reported recently that this country now has only from 44 to 46 modern groups. Unless additional money is made available, Vinson said the nation would have only 4 modern groups by 1956. And the present bill, he added, "leaves a deficiency in naval aircraft procurement of 1,349 planes."

Veteran of 36 years experience in military legislation in congress, Vinson laded out caustic criticism and challenges — and some left-handed praises.

His principal target was Secretary of Defense Johnson.

"The issue is clear cut," Vinson said. "It is whether the congress will say what kind of defense the nation will have, or whether the creature of the congress, the secretary of defense, Mr. Louis Johnson, will tell us what kind of defense he will let the congress have."

Arguments Heard in Segregation Test Case

Western Allies Organize General Staff

Berlin, April 4 —(AP)—The Western powers in Berlin have organized an Allied general staff to spring into action in any emergency.

This was disclosed in an interview today by Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, U. S. commandant in the divided city.

In some respects the new American-British-French staff resembles wartime Shaeft — supreme headquarters of the Allied expeditionary force. There is no overall commander but the post is reserved for such appointment in the event of genuine aggression.

Taylor said there had always been a staff of the primary task is to plan the suppression of any "Putsch" tactics that might be forthcoming from the East. The staff came into being after the Communists threatened to use a youth march of a half million East Germans to storm the city May 27-30, and spread disorder and fear. Since then the Communists have taken a milder tone in their plans for the end of next month.

Government Payroll Too High Says GOP

Washington, April 4 —(AP)— The government payroll, carrying an estimated 2,000,000 names, shaped up today as the main target of a Republican budget-cutting drive in the house.

Approximately $70,000,000,000 in an omnibus $29,045,090,184 appropriation bill now before the house represents payroll costs, according to Republicans. They say it can be cut about $1,000,000,000.

Rep. Taber of New York, leader of the house Republican "economy bloc," disclosed the GOP goal yesterday as the house opened debate on the big bill financing more than 40 federal agencies for the fiscal year 1951, which begins July 1.

Congress Not Likely to Force Truman

Washington April 4 —(AP)— About 20 congressmen who played in the Democratic-Republican baseball game here last summer are scheduled to leave for Florida next Monday for what is billed as a week of "spring practice."

The trip will be made at the invitation of Rep. Herlong (D-Fla.), during the Easter recess of the house. It will be a mixed gathering of Republicans and Democrats.

Senator Cain (R-Wash.) may represent the senate on the trip.

The itinerary outlined by Herlong doesn't leave much time for baseball practice. But Herlong said "the congressmen have worked hard this session and some Florida sunshine and orange juice won't do them any harm."

There Is Something About a Big House, Family That Seems to Be a Better Way of Life

By HAL BOYLE

New York —(AP)— Families and houses are getting smaller today. Drive through the suburbs of any city and you can see many 8-to-12 room homes of 50 to 75 years ago standing boarded up and empty. Some have been turned into duplexes or triplexes. And still others are being torn down to make way for new real estate developments with names like Quagmire Heights or Far Flung Hills.

I hate to see these fine old houses die. It is like watching a kindly elephant go down. Architecturally and with their sprawling porches and gingerbread wooden trim, they may have been monstrosities. But they had a virtue above ordinary art — they were lived in, and well-lived in, by sprawling happy families. What ever they lacked in beauty as houses, they made up for in the love they held as homes.

The smaller, close-packed dwellings that are replacing them have many more conveniences. They do look neater, too, and they have gadgets in them no one ever dreamed of in 190. But they also often have the monotonous look of a row of cells in a beehive.

The idea used to be to build houses far enough apart so that each family would have some privacy, a lawn and a backyard with space to raise a few chickens in. Now a lot of folks appear to be uneasy unless their houses are close enough for them to hear what the neighbors are saying each other — or listening to the radio.

And without getting maudlin about it, I sometimes feel sorry for these small families living in their small and sanitary houses. I guess this is progress, and you can't fight progress; but I can't, for the life of me, see just what the progress amounts to.

The two-kid families in the better-built mousetrap of today have

McClellan to Side With Taft on NLRB

Washington, April 4 —(AP)— Senator McClellan (D-Ark.) sided today with Senator Taft (R-Ohio) in opposing President Truman's national labor relations board reorganization plan.

McClellan, chairman of the senate expenditures committee, made his position known in advance of committee hearings on Taft's resolution to reject the Truman proposal. It would eliminate the office of NLRB General Counsel Robert Denham and transfer his powers to the board chairman.

Navy Reports Foreign Subs Off U. S. Coast

San Francisco, April 4 —(AP)— The navy says foreign submarines "very probably" have been operating off the California coast.

A four-day search by surface and air craft produced only "inconclusive" results. But there wasn't much that could have been done about it since the strange submarines were in international waters.

Capt. J. A. Holbrook, commander of the Destroyer Colahan, returned yesterday from the search and reported having made contact twice through radar and sonar with objects he believed were submarines. Captain Holbrook is a former submarine officer.

After evaluating the captain's report, Rear Admiral R. I. Entwistle, vice commander of the Western Sea frontier, said the contacts made "very probably" were one or more foreign submarines on routine maneuvers.

At no time during the search was any submarine sighted, either by surface craft or from the air.

Although investigation of several reports of submarines having been sighted is continuing, the WSF said search was being suspended "pending further developments."

With possibly one exception, all the submarines reported sighted have been well beyond the three-mile limit. Ships of any nationality — warships as well as merchant — may operate freely beyond territorial waters.

The one exception was mentioned in a resume of submarine reports issued yesterday by the WSF. Civilians at Yaquina, Ore., reported seeing what they thought was a submarine a quarter to a half mile off shore at 5 p. m. Sunday.

Thorough search by air for a submarine reported seen off Point Arguello, about 200 miles south of San Francisco, "was conducted with negative results," the WSF said.

Still another submarine seen off Santa Catalina island last Saturday was identified by the navy as the U. S. S. Charr out of San Diego.

Russian Planes Aiding Sino Reds Say Nationalists

Taipei, Formosa, April 4 —(AP)— An air headquarters spokesman today said Russian planes "definitely" were of Russian manufacture. And he added: Judging from their technique, "they most certainly" were manned by Russians.

The spokesman said the planes "definitely" were of Russian manufacture. And he added: Judging from their technique, "they most certainly" were manned by Russians.

The Nationalist fighters were shot down Sunday during a raid on Red shipping in Hangchow bay south of Shanghai.

That opposition, the first the Nationalists have encountered in the air in four years of civil war, was seen by many today as an ominous forerunner of Communist air attacks on Formosa.

So Simple Insists Scientist

Baltimore, April 4 —(AP)— Shoot up a half-dozen guided missiles, let them hang above the pull of gravity, and there you have it: Radar reflectors that make it possible to detect objects anywhere on the surface of the earth.

That's not Buck Rogers talk. It was cited as a definite possibility last night by one of the nation's foremost authorities on guided missile development.

All that's lacking is "money and time," Dr. Charles Green, a missile specialist with the General Electric Co., told the Maryland section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

Here is the way he explained it:

Shoot a special missile developed from an improved V-2 rocket 100 miles into space. At that point it has been calculated, the pull of gravity and the pull away from the earth, caused by the earth's spin, would balance exactly.

He added, in technical terms, that the distance could be increased with varying conditions and types of missile-satellites.

Then, with these man-made satellites hanging in space, radar beams — such very high frequency waves that travel in a straight line and do not conform to the curvature of the earth — would be able to reflect against the suspended missiles and bounce back to earth. Perhaps not once, but several times against the several missiles.

"Does it all sound impossible?" he asked. "Well, the moon's been doing it for centuries."

"The theoretical basis for such satellites is applicable. What's lacking is money and time."

Then he added: "Ten years ago we were talking about a sonic barrier that put an upper limit to any airspeed. Remember?"

Safe Cracked at Olie's Dairy, $1,986 Taken

Burglars broke into Olie's Dairy Co. here last night, pried open two small office safes and looted them of some $1,986 in cash, city police announced today.

The amount of money was unusually large due to first of the month collections. The money was in bills ranging from $100 down and included a large amount of change, some already rolled for bank deposit.

Entrance to the plant was gained through a milk loading chute. Two doors guarding the chute were broken.

The two small safes in the office were taken to a cold storage vault, the knobs knocked off and the doors pried open. The vault is practically sound proof.

The robbery was discovered about 3 a. m. when deliverymen came to work. City, State and County police are investigating.

This was the second large safe-looting job here this year. In January Middlebrooks Grocery Company's safe was looted of over $1000.

Investigation of Communists Stalemated

Washington, April 4 —(AP)— senate. Communist investigation headed for a possible stalemate today, Senator Connally (D-Tex.) dictated the senate would attempt citations for officials refusing access to secret loyalty files.

A senate foreign relations committee investigating charges by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) that the state department is harboring Communists and is being influenced by Soviet spies, balked at every turn.

It faced the necessity of obtaining a contempt citation. Connally told reporters little chance of getting a subpoena from the FBI against opening the files.

Without much hope, McCarthy sought means of forcing McCarthy to make available six documents he turned over to the FBI in connection with his charges that the state department is harboring Communists and is being influenced by Soviet spies.

The three officials were indicted by President Truman for the subcommittee headed by Senator Tydings (D-Md.) to look secret loyalty records.

Senator Brewster (R-Md.) said it is no contempt proceeding ordered, the senate will be in position of backing down and vote to oblige the committee subpoena powers to the committee.

Tydings called the committee together to consider the problem but McCarthy's refusal to make his Lattimore case documents available.

Tydings conceded to report that the prospects of obtaining evidence from either source appear slim. He said the committee could undertake its own investigation of each of about 50 names where McCarthy has supplied names, but added that would be expensive and might take a time.

Navy Denies Any Part of 'Saucer'

Washington, April 4 —(AP)—The navy says, in comment on the latest flying saucer report: (1) It has not developed any pancake-shaped jet planes and (2) it is not experimenting with any saucer-shaped missile.

In fact, the department reported through a spokesman, the nearest thing to a flying saucer it ever developed has not flown since 1947.

The spokesman was commenting last night on an article in U. S. News and World Report which said engineers have concluded that the oft-reported saucers are jet-powered planes of a new design developed by the navy. The magazine said the saucers may have sprung from experiments by Charles H. Zimmerman for the national advisory committee for aeronautics (NACA).

At Langley air force base in Virginia, Zimmerman said he worked on an experimental pancake-shaped model plane during the war — this was the one the navy said flew last in 1947 — but he didn't regard it as a forerunner to the flying saucer.

To conclude that it was, he said, was "obviously the wrong conclusion."

NACA officials said the model Zimmerman developed later became a navy craft known as the XF5U, or "flying pancake." The navy said a full scale experimental model never got off the ground.

Taylor said last night that many "flying saucers" really are U. S. controlled jet fighter planes.

On his ABC broadcast he referred to the XF5U. He called it a navy experimental fighter of "incredible speed." It looks and is shaped like a pancake, Taylor said.

He said a "saucer" seen over Montgomery, Ala., on July 24, 1948, by two Eastern Airlines pilots, really was an experimental jet plane. In a broadcast from Dallas, Texas, last Monday, Taylor said he thinks there are other flying saucers controlled by the U. S.

He said they are of several types "but nobody is inside of them."

He said one was found on the ground in Texas.

Small Tornadoes Strike Again in Arkansas

By The Associated Press

Two more small tornadoes, rain, hail and plunging temperatures accompanied a cold front into Arkansas varied weather picture Monday night.

And, while temperatures soared into summertime 80's Monday, Tuesday's low readings were mostly in the 30's and 40's. Near-freezing minimums were forecast for Tuesday night. Partly cloudy skies and continued cold weather are forecast for Wednesday.

Twisters hit Gould, in Lincoln county in southeast Arkansas, and Yarbrough, near Blytheville, in the northeast section, Monday night, but no injuries were reported.

Three homes were damaged at Gould. One residence and a barn suffered damage at Yarbrough.

It was the third series of tornadoes in the state this spring.

Twenty-one persons were injured and heavy damage was caused by twisters which whirled several sections March 26. A tornado Sunday night killed one and injured nine near Tuckerman.

The cold front, coming in from the northwest, brought hail to Fayetteville, Fort Smith, Waldron, Greenwood and Devil's Knob.

General rainfall was accompanied by thunderstorms and high winds. Heaviest rain was 2.60 inches at Crystal Valley.

Wisconsin produces almost 50% of America's cheese supply.

DOROTHY DIX

Helpless Males

Dear Miss Dix: Recently you said in an article that "men park their brains when dealing with women." I agree with you but you did not give any remedy. Any way, how should women be treated by men?

Answer: There isn't any remedy for men being befuddled by women because God made them that way. It has always been that way from the beginning. Men have worn bladders instead of using spyglasses when it came to trying to find out what they were up to. Look how easily the first woman put it over the first man. Well for it.

He knew he was risking his good home and a swell job but Eve rolled her eyes at him and looked wistful and hurt because he wouldn't do a little thing to please her like taking a little bite, or maybe she looked scornful and taunted him with being a fraud.

And Adam fell for it the same as you and all other men fall for the arts and wiles of the women you love. Why women have been pulling off the same old tricks from the time of our first mother down to today, and they are still good for emerald bracelets and new cars and trips to Europe.

But of course, every man is convinced that no women women could fool him. He would see through her motives as if they were a pane of glass. He would know when she wept for grief and when she wept to get a new hat. He would know she meant it when she told him how wonderful he was and how big and strong and noble. He would know that it was just by chance that she happened to be coming by his office door as he was starting home and that it was pure accident when she stumbled and fell into his arms. Oh, no. No woman could put anything over on him.

And that is the reason women smile secretly to themselves while they imitate the clinging vine or weep or pout as the occasion may demand. And that's why wives all have a particularly good dinner of the things that hubby likes best to eat before presenting the bill for their new frock or imparting the glad tidings that Aunt Suzanne is coming for a nice long visit.

As to how men should treat women the present method is satisfactory to both parties. So let it ride.

Dear Miss Dix: Will you please give me all the arguments in favor of marriage for a boy from a boy's viewpoint.

Answer: There are none. Nothing but a miracle can save a boy's marriage from being a disaster to him and wrecking his life, and miracles take place so seldom that no one has a right to expect one to happen to him and save him from the result of his folly.

Against the boy's one argument for marriage you can bring a thousand potent reasons against it. First that because a boy thinks he is in love is no justification of his marriage, because a boy's love isn't made of the stuff that lasts. Secondly a boy has not had his play time and is not ready to settle down. After marriage he will be just as anxious to step out and amuse himself as he was before marriage. Third, it is eternally true that the young man married is the young man married. The boy who marries before he has got a start in the world blocks his career. Fourth a boy has no right to marry because he cannot support a family and it is a dastardly thing for him to burden his poor, hard-worked old parents with his wife and babies.

And lastly there is plenty of time in which to marry and there is no reason for a boy to rush into matrimony before he is ready for it.

Dear Miss Dix: I am a married man and love my wife, and no one could ever come between us but I live in another city and can only go home for week ends. I work in an office with a girl whose sweet disposition and ladylike ways have won my admiration. She is 33 years old. I am 752. I have been taking her to work every day in my car. There is no thought of love or anything of the sort between us. Just good friends. But she says that people are beginning to talk about us and refuses to go with me any more. Must we give up a perfectly innocent friendship just because of a few busybodies?

Answer: You will have to give it up if you save the girl's good name. It is folly to talk about ignoring gossip. When a married man is seen habitually with a girl people believe the worst of it. So no matter how innocent and platonic your sentiments are, nor how altruistic your intentions to the girl they must cease for both her sake and for your.

Four Electric Firms May Go on Strike

Pittsburgh, April 3 —(AP)— Four big electrical companies employing more than 30,000 workers are going to receive demands soon for wage boosts and pension and welfare benefits.

The question is who will do the asking — the new CIO International Union of Electrical Workers or the independent United Electrical Workers?

The companies are Westinghouse Electric corporation, General Electric company, the electrical division of General Motors corporation, and the Pennsylvania Electric Products company.

None now have pension or insurance plans wholly financed by the employer.

The new CIO-IUE union has a contract now with General Motors, a contract won through a national labor relations board election. Similar bargaining elections are to be held within the next few weeks.

The two major unions on the ballot will be the CIO group and the new-independent IUE which was ousted from the CIO several months ago for what CIO President Philip Murray described as left-wing tendencies.

The new CIO union decided on its contract goals yesterday following three days of closed door sessions here. The IUE claims to have 210,000 members in the fold — all former members of the IUE.

The IUE didn't specify its wage increase desires for workers averaging about $1.41 an hour.

However, thounion says it wants a minimum pension of $125 monthly.

The pension and social insurance objectives are patterned after those sought last year in the steel

Borger Jury Reports No Non-Virgin Club

Borger, Tex., April 4 —(AP)— There is no such thing as a "non-virgin" club among teen-agers in Borger the Hutchinson county grand jury reported.

The grand jury report came after an investigation last week after newspaper articles said there was evidence such a club existed and that it was believed to require its members to have sexual intercourse at least once a week.

The grand jury report yesterday described this as "wholly untrue" and warranted upon the basis of the suspicions and rumors it repeats.

In publishing reports of the club the Borger News-Herald said its information did not consist of proved facts. But the paper said the alleged existence of such a club became a matter of common gossip in Borger.

industry. But what role, if any, social security would play in the proposed pension was not indicated.

The CIO United Steelworkers obtained $100 monthly pensions, including social security.

The IUE says it will also seek improved vacation plans, nine paid holidays, elimination of wage inequities, and other benefits which vary slightly between the companies.

Sophs to Play Lot of Ball at University

By CARL BELL

Little Rock, April 4 —(AP)—Sophomores are going to play a lot of football for the Arkansas Razorbacks next fall.

It isn't that Coach Otis Douglas is short of experienced hands, either. It's just that some of the gridmen who showed up best in spring practice will be putting in their first varsity season in 1939. These include backs Larry Hogue, Buddy Sutton, Jean Pryor and Johnny Cole.

A senior back generally regarded as a sure starter remarked that he expects more competition for a first string berth than he's ever had.

Prospects for the future are promising, too, when you consider that the Parker squad is made up of 31 sophomores, 20 juniors and only 17 seniors. Of course, not all the sophomores are in the same class with the above mentioned now. But most of them are big and should learn.

Twenty-five of the juniors and seniors are lettermen. They'll be the steady influence this year.

The rush of college scouts for high school seniors is in full swing, which means that most of the boys' studying is about where they'll be next year. They're kept too busy receiving offers and visiting college campuses to devote much time to books.

One prep star from northeast Arkansas told us he was taking all the free trips he could get. He wouldn't say whether he'd already picked his college, but explained: "I like to travel."

The Arkansas Athletic association, which governs the state's high school sports, would like to put a stop to recruiting boys while they still are in high school.

The AAA would have to have the cooperation of the colleges, for it would have no authority to make a boy ineligible for collegiate play. It could, however, revoke any further high school eligibility of a boy. For instance, if an all-round athlete accepts favors from a college after the football season, he could be made ineligible for basketball, track and baseball.

But chances are that wouldn't do much more than slow down recruiting.

What might be effective isn't known, but a highly placed AAA official says the matter probably will be explored before too long.

One of the spectators at the Razorbacks' final spring intrasquad game was one of their former head coaches, Fred C. (Tommy) Thomson, now coaching the Springfield, Mo., Teachers.

"They key to the split T," he said, "is the quarterback knowing when to hand the ball off and when to keep it and run with it himself. I know that formation pretty well — I faced it seven times last season."

Porkers Open Baseball Play With Victory

Fayetteville, April 4 —(AP)— The University of Arkansas opened its 1939 baseball season by defeating Washington university of St. Louis, 19-10, here yesterday.

The game, played on a muddy field and in high wind, was called at the end of six innings because of rain and darkness.

Pitcher Jack Shawgo's two-run homer started a 13-run Arkansas uprising in the second inning.

The two teams were to play another game here today, weather permitting.

All-Stars and Globetrotters Are Even

Cleveland, April 4 —(AP)—Harlem's famed Globetrotters and the college All-Americans were tied at one-all today in their 18-game cross-country basketball tour.

Playing on a slippery, sweating floor that caused numerous spills, the collegians led all the way last night and romped to a 66-58 victory.

The two teams meet again tonight in Indianapolis. The Globe Trotters, who have suffered only three losses in 150 games this season, won the opening contest in Chicago, 58-47.

Alligator's Age

Many authorities say that an alligator does not reach its full growth until it is between 40 and 60 years old. Their normal life span is said to be between 100 and 200 years.

Fighters From France After LaMotta

Philadelphia, April 4 —(AP)—Jake La Motta better dust off his French dictionary — the boys from Paris are gunning for his middle-weight crown.

The boys — better known as Robert Villmain and Laurent Dauthuille — registered impressive wins last night, one in Philadelphia and the other in Pittsburgh.

Villmain, who has made it known — in French, of course — that he intends to carry La Motta's title back to Paris, took a unanimous 10-round decision from Philadelphia's Otis Graham.

Dauthuille, blond puncher who has been working out of Montreal since he came to this side of the Atlantic last year, kayoed Pittsburgh's Charley (Zivic) Affit in the ninth round of their scheduled 10-rounder.

Villmain, who weighed 158 1-2 to Graham's 156, gave the Philadelphia Negro a boxing lesson with his weaving, bobbing style.

Only Villmain's lack of punching power kept the fight going the distance.

At the start, the Frenchman jabbed Graham all over the ring. Then, Villmain changed his attack, feinting, Graham out of position time and again before pounding him with both hands as he tried to recover.

Dauthuille showed the same sort of mastery over Affit, although the Pittsburgh middleweight displayed some form in rocking the Frenchman with a sharp left in the fourth round.

Dauthuille came back stronger than ever, however, and dropped Affit just before the bell. In the seventh and eighth, Affit exploded with a flurry of punches, but

Here's the only possible source of a fourth-round increase in telephone wages

If telephone union leaders are successful in their campaign for a fourth-round increase in wages, the money to meet their demands must be reflected in your telephone bill.

The company's position is this: It is in the public interest to pay fair and reasonable wages. It is not in the public interest to increase wages which are already fair and reasonable. If a wage increase were justified, the employees would be entitled to it even though it became necessary for the company to seek rate increases beyond those already needed.

There is simply no justification for a wage increase at this time. Wages and working conditions compare favorably with those in other jobs in the community that require similar skills and experience.

COST OF LIVING
UP 66%
Since Jan., 1941

BASIC TELEPHONE WAGE RATES
UP 94%
Since Jan., 1941

Basic wage rates have more than kept pace with the cost of living. They attract and hold the capable people it takes to give you good service. Employment turnover in the telephone company is less than half the average rate for all manufacturing industries.

But telephone rate increases in Arkansas lag far behind rising operating costs and have even failed by a wide margin to cover the current cost of wage increases granted during and since the war. This has been a big factor in pulling the company's rate of earnings down to the lowest level in its history.

Yet we are faced today with the job of raising millions of dollars in new investment money to meet the growing telephone needs of the communities we serve. This we can hope to achieve only with the prospect of improved earnings — which means that higher rates are already a necessity.

Any fourth-round wage increases would mean rate increases in addition to those now needed. Premium wages for telephone work — above community levels — would place an unnecessary burden on telephone customers.

An increase of one cent an hour would add one and a third million dollars a year to present telephone costs. Union leaders' demands for 15¢ an hour would add $20,000,000 — an average of $8 a year per customer.

15¢ = $8 A YEAR PER CUSTOMER

AN HOUR $8 A YEAR PER CUSTOMER
To grant such an unwarranted wage increase would not be consistent with our obligation to furnish the best possible service at the lowest possible cost.

HOW DO THESE EARNINGS LOOK TO YOU?

The real test of telephone wages is how they compare with those paid in the same communities for jobs requiring similar skill and experience. Here are average weekly and annual earnings of telephone people.

Seek to Get Truman Back in Headlines

Key West, Fla., April 4 —(P)— President Truman's aides sought new ammunition today to get him back into the headlines.

The outflow of news from this winter White House slowed down perceptibly as the presidential vacation continued into its fourth week.

At the same time, close associates of the chief executive contended that he is getting twice as much work done here than he normally accomplishes in any similar period in Washington.

They said this is possible because he does not have to see the many callers he is required to talk to when he is at the White House.

Usually, he will see a caller or a group of callers, every 15 minutes from around 10 a. m. until one, and sometimes two or three in the afternoon.

Here, in this closely guarded naval submarine station, in this nation's southernmost city, he is free from visitors except those like members of his cabinet, he may summon when needed.

Statements, administration appointments, a full-fledged presidential news conference and a long-distance battle with Senator McCarthy (R-Wis), instigator of charges of communism in the state department, have been the vehicles of the program.

Reporters were advised that other news is in the making for release before Mr. Truman returns to Washington Monday.

Mrs. Truman and their daughter, Margaret, joined the Presi-daughter, Miss Bernice, who attends Henderson State Teachers college, Arkadelphia.

Mrs. Horace Estes of Gurdon was the Friday guest of her mother Mrs. S. H. McMahan.

Mrs. Charlie Thomas and son Jim spent Saturday in Hope as the guests of Dr. J. E. Gentry.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Yancy spent Sunday in Texarkana with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gee, Jr. Master Bill Gee accompanied them home.

Mrs. Hervey Bemis, Mrs. Karl King, Jr. and daughter Kay and Genevieve motored to Texarkana Saturday.

Mrs. Berry Hesterly and Mrs. Frank McLarty of Hope spent Friday in Little Rock.

ADA Votes to Stand on Own Feet

Washington, April 3 —(P)— The Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) is now committed to standing on its own political feet.

The idea is to keep critics from calling it a "captive" adjunct of the Democratic "fair deal" as some have been doing since ADA was organized three years ago to fight for principles of the Roosevelt New Deal.

And it has a new chairman in former Attorney General Francis Biddle, one of the first New Dealers. Biddle is opposed to forming a third party at this time, uniting anti-Communist liberals, as is the ADA, but does not close his mind to that possibility sometime in the future.

An insurgent group is responsible for the new turn in ADA affairs. It took control at the concluding session of the ADA convention yesterday and routed the leadership on the "fair deal" tie.

It won adoption of a policy committee minority plank striking out a section saying that to achieve liberal aims, "cooperation with the fair deal elements of the Democratic party affords the best opportunity on the national level at this time."

The leadership had added the reservation "at this time" to the ADA 1949 platform, but the insurgent Saturday. They go to the beach with him daily, Margaret to swim, Mrs. Truman to watch.

The President, looking peppery and wearing a deep tan, says he never felt better in his life.

Racket Probe Continues at Malvern

Malvern, April 4 —(P)— Judge Roy Danuser's racket probing a grand jury today resumed its search for any connection between law enforcement officials and bootlegging and gambling activities in dry Hot Spring county.

The special jury, beginning its second victim inquiry in two weeks, was charged by the circuit judge yesterday to investigate every law enforcement officer in Malvern and Hot Spring county.

He also told the probers there is evidence of perjury at last week's session and added "there may be an awful lot of people go to the state penitentiary for perjury."

The jury returned two indictments last night, one against C. W. Hardwick, Jr., suspended Malvern alderman, who was indicted at the first session. Brought immediately into court, he pleaded guilty to a charge of operating a gambling device and was given a three-year suspended sentence.

More Miles per Hour
—More Hours per Day!

We are not talking here about excessive speed. Sensible people, regardless of the power they have at their command, obey the laws of the highway and the rules of safety.

We are talking about distance—about the miles you can cover at the wheel of a 1950 Cadillac—entirely within the legal limits.

First, let's consider an hour...

You settle yourself comfortably into the deep-cushioned seat, touch the soft-throated engine into action—and within a matter of minutes, you begin to understand what we mean.

When the light turns green, your rightful place in the traffic line is definitely assured. You take easy advantage of every opening that presents itself. On the hills and grades, you merely give the engine a little throttle—and float on up without the slightest loss of speed.

Braking is so certain, steering so easy, power so abundant —that you move instinctively ahead at every opportunity. And at the end of an hour, you can scarcely believe the odometer.

Did we say an hour? It seems little more than half that time! You're so relaxed and at ease that not until the sun shows red in the west do you realize that you've been sitting behind the wheel for a much longer time than you'd planned on driving today.

And how wonderful you feel! Both you and your passengers are carefree and happy as you decide to call it a day. Maybe just a little bit hungry—because you probably forgot to stop for lunch!

And where did you get to? Most owners say it's a good one hundred miles beyond their expectation.

Better come in and see about this. You'll need only an hour—because an hour will reveal what a day would be like.
